Being enterprising means using your skills and positive attitude to make things happen – at school, in work and at home

4

Can you think of any famous people who have been enterprising?

You – what enterprise skills do you have?

Summary: Being enterprising

- It is good to be enterprising at school, at work and at home
- There are lots of different enterprise skills
- We can all be enterprising
- We can show employers our enterprise skills

How can being creative help you solve problems?

What is a creative person like?

8

A creative person is just like you

Being creative can help you solve problems

Can you suggest a problem that we can all solve by being creative?

Example – there are not enough games to play at lunchtime in school

Planning your ideas

10

Working in small groups, think about different ways to solve the problem creatively. Your ideas can be sensible or as imaginative as you would like – or a bit of both

Think of five ideas and decide which are your top two most creative ideas and think of why

In the next lesson you will be making a creative presentation to show your ideas to the rest of the group so keep them secret

Remember your ideas

Create a presentation in an unusual or creative way to tell the rest of the group about your ideas using drama, role play, art work, a song, a poem, a short film – or another creative idea

11

What were your top five solutions?

What was the problem you
wanted to solve?

What are your top two creative ideas you want to present?

Planning your presentation

Don't forget to include:

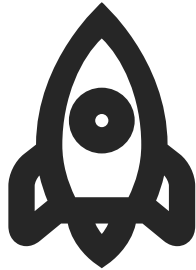

- What your idea is
- What problem you want to solve?
- What's good about your idea?
- (e.g. it doesn't cost anything, or it won't take a lot of time)
- What are the benefits of your idea?
- (e.g. it will help improve everyone's fitness and health)
