Section 1

To be eligible for a LifeSkills Award, institutions must meet all of the criteria listed in section 1. Please mark a cross in each of the following boxes which apply to your institution.

---

1. Your institution is a secondary school or further education college in the UK

---

2. There are at least three educators actively participating in LifeSkills in your institution

---

3. The actively participating educators at your institution are from at least two different departments or subjects

---

4. Educators from across your institution have downloaded and taught at least 10 different LifeSkills lessons this academic year

---

5. The resources which have been downloaded by your institution include content across 11-14, 14-16, 16-19 age categories where relevant

---

Section 2

Answer the following four questions to demonstrate how you and your colleagues are working together to embed LifeSkills across your institution. This should include, but not be limited to, details on the following:

---

1. How is the LifeSkills programme delivered across your institution?

---

2. How is LifeSkills taught across multiple ages and subjects?

---

3. How is LifeSkills embedded into the institution's overall employability and careers strategy?

---

4. Give an example of when you have seen LifeSkills have a positive impact on your students

---

Please note that by submitting your institution's application for the LifeSkills Award, and subject to this being successful, you agree for your institution to be highlighted to the local community through marketing activity. This includes, but is not limited to, media, press, blogs, promotional emails and social media.

The LifeSkills Award is valid for two academic years from the point of receipt.

Before submitting, please ensure you have read and understood the LifeSkills Award terms and conditions referenced on the LifeSkills Award webpage. Completed forms can be sent to barclayslifeskills@barclays.com

Our education partner Hopscotch Consulting will review your application and may be in touch for more information.
